In this question we have three case, but we take here only right case, you have to take three cases first then after solving whole question two cases will be wrong. In this we have to give intension on every month's days, odd even month etc.

1) Q will attend the meeting on either 27th August or 27th December.

2) There is only one person will attend the meeting between Q and T.

3) There are two persons will attend the meeting between the T and R.

Dates/Months →	August	December
↓
21 st	T
23 rd
27 th	Q
31 st	R

I clear the order of dates month first take all august dates after that December dates because after august December comes. Such as if we make sit T multinational company on 21st of august and then in the question we have to provide that there is only one gap between T and Q so first count all the dates of august and after that December dates.

4) There is one person will attend the meeting between the R and S.
