Passage — I

From 1600 to 1757 the East India Company's role in India was that of a trading corporation which brought goods or precious metals into India and exchanged them for Indian goods like textiles and spices, which it sold abroad. Its profits came primarily from the sale of Indian goods abroad. Naturally, it tried constantly to open new markets for Indian goods in Britain and other countries. Thereby, it increased the export of Indian manufacturers, and thus encouraged their production. This is the reason why Indian rulers tolerated and even encouraged the establishment of the Company's factories in India. But, from the very beginning, the British manufacturers were jealous of the popularity that India textiles enjoyed in Britain. All of a sudden, dress fashions changed and light cotton textiles began to replace the coarse woolens of the English, Before, the author of the famous novel, Robinson Crusoe, complained that Indian cloth had "crept into our houses, our closets and bed chambers; curtains, cushions, chairs, and at last beds themselves were nothing but calicos or India stuffs". The British manufacturers put pressure on their government to restrict and prohibit the sale of Indian goods in England. By 1720, laws had been passed forbidding the wear or use of printed or dyed cotton cloth, in 1760 a lady had to pay a fine of 200 for possessing an imported handkerchief! Moreover, heavy duties were imposed on the import of plain cloth. Other European countries, except Holland. also either prohibited the import of Indian cloth or imposed heavy import duties. In spite of these laws, however, Indian silk and cotton textiles still held their own in foreign markets, until the middle of the eighteenth century when the English textile industry began to develop on the basis of new and advanced technology.

Passage — II

Zimbabwe's prolonged political crisis reached the boiling point earlier this month when President Robert Mugabe dismissed the Vice-President, Emmerson Mnangagwa. A battle to succeed the 93-year-old liberation hero-turned President had already been brewing within the ruling Zimbabwe African National Union-Patriotic Front (Zanu-PF), with the old guard backing Mr. Mnangagwa, himself a freedom fighter, and 'Generation 40', a grouping of younger leaders supporting Mr, Mugabe's 52-year-old wife, Grace. Ms. Mugabe, known, for her extravagant lifestyle and interfering ways, has been vocal in recent months about her political ambitions. Mr. Mugabe was seen to have endorsed iii when on November 6 he dismissed Mr. Mnangagwa. But Mr. Mugabe who has ruled Zimbabwe since its independence in 1980, erred on Two counts: he underimat&1 the deep connections Mr. Mnangagwa has within the establishment and overestimated his own power in a system he has helped shape. In the good old days, Mr. Mugabe was able to rule with an iron grip. But those days are gone. Age and health problems have weakened his hold on power, while there is a groundswell of anger among the public over economic mismanagement. So when he turned against a man long seen by the establishment as his successor, Mr. Mugabe left little doubt that he was acting from a position of political weakness. This gave the security forces the confidence to turn against him and make it clear they didn't want a Mugabe dynasty. The military doesn't want to call its action a coup d'etat, for obvious reasons. A coup would attract international condemnation, even sanctions. But it is certain that the army chief, General. Constantine Chiwenga, is in charge. His plan as it emerges, is to force Mr. Mugabe to resign and install a transitional government, perhaps under Mr. Mnangagwa, until elections are held.

  - B. he turned against the army
  - C. he suffered from health issues
  - D. he dismissed Mr. Mnangagwa
- 34. The security forces of Zimbabwe staged a coup against the President because
  - A. they wanted Mrs. Mugabe as the President
  - B. they were aware of Mugabe's failing wealth
  - C. they disliked Mugabe's extravagant lifestyle
  - D. they did not want a Mugabe dynasty
- 35. Why does the military not want to call it a coup d'etat?
  - A. Because coup is immoral
  - B. Because coup is illegal
  - C. Because coup would lead to inter-national censure and sanctions
  - D. Because it would make the public revolt

Passage - III

Over-eating is one of the most wonderful practices among those who think that they can afford it. In fact, authorities say that nearly all who can get as much as they desire, over-eat to their disadvantage. This class of people could save a great more food than they can save by missing one meal per week and at the same time they could improve their health. A heavy meal at night, the so-called "dinner", is the fashion with many and often is taken shortly before retiring. It is unnecessary and could be forgone, not only once a week but daily without loss of strength. From three to five hours are needed to digest food. While sleeping, this food not being required to give energy for work, is in many cases converted into excess fat, giving rise to overweight. The evening meal should be light, taken three or four hours before retiring. This prevents overeating, conserves energy and reduces the cost of food.

- 36. Why should those who over-eat refrain from doing so?
  - A. Because overeating leads to loss of wealth
  - B. Because overeating is bad for health
  - C. Because overeating conserves food
  - D. Because overeating is immoral and unhealthy
- 37. Over-eating is more prevalent among

- 39. What is the most appropriate time for having evening meal?
  - A. An hour after the sunset
  - B. Three or four hours before sleeping
  - C. Before the sunset
  - D. Just before sleeping

- 40. According to the passage, how many times a day should we have food?
  - A. Three times

B. Two times

C. Once

- D. Has not been specified
- 41. According to the passage, people overeat
  - A. because they can afford to

Passage - IV

Much has been said of the common ground of religious unity. I am not going just now to venture own theory. But if anyone here hopes that this unity will come by the triumph of any one of the religions and the destruction of the others, to him I say, "Bother, yours is an impossible hope." Do I wish that the Christian would become Hindu? God forbid. Do I wish that the Hindu or Buddhist would become Christian? God forbid.

The seed is put in the ground, and earth and air and water are placed around it. Does the seed become the earth, or the air, or the water? No. It becomes a plant. it develops after the law of its own growth, assimilates the air, the earth, and the water, converts them into plant substance, and grows into a plant.

Similar is the case with religion. The Christian is not to become a Hindu or a Buddhist, nor a Hindu or a Buddhist to become a Christian. But each must assimilate the spirit of the others and yet preserve his individuality and grow according to his own law of growth.

If the Parliament of Religions has shown anything to the world, it is this: it has proved to the world that holiness, purity and charity are not the exclusive possessions of any church in the world, and that every system has produced men and women of the most exalted character. In the face of this evidence, if anybody dreams of the exclusive survival of his own religion and the destruction of the others, I pity him from the bottom of my heart, and point out to him that upon the banner of every religion will soon be written in spite of resistance: "Help and not fight," "Assimilation and not Destruction," "Harmony and Peace and not Dissension."

- 42. According to the author of the passage, people should
  - A. change their religions
  - B. follow their religions and persuade others to follow it
  - C. follow their own religions and respect other religions
  - D. disrespect other religions
- 43. The Parliament of Religions is
  - A. a Christian organization
  - B. a Buddhist organization
  - C. a Hindu organization
  - D. a platform for discussion about every religion of the world
- 44. What does the author think about those who dream about the exclusive survival of their own religions and the destruction of the others?
  - A. He hates them
  - B. He desires to imprison them
  - C. He pities them
  - D. He praises them
- 45. According to the passage, what is "impossible hope"?
  - A. One day, all the people of the world will follow only one religion
  - B. One day, there will be no religion
  - C. Purity and charity are the exclusive possessions
  - D. Banner of every religion will soon be written

C. rainfall
