

Reading Comprehension Book for CAT

Reading Comprehension Book for CAT helps to prepare well for the RC section of CAT. Candidates who are preparing for the upcoming exam must study the expert's recommended Reading Comprehension Book for CAT to crack this section with a good score. You may know that in the Reading Comprehension section, passage-based MCQs will be asked, and you have to read the given passage to answer the question.

In this article, BYJU'S Exam Prep experts have listed some important Reading Comprehension Book for CAT for all aspiring candidates. You can follow those CAT Reading Comprehension Books and prepare for the next exam.

Top 10 Reading Comprehension Book for CAT

Here are the 10 Best Books for CAT Reading Comprehension that will cultivate your interest in reading. Also, it will help you score better in Reading Comprehension for CAT and other areas of the verbal ability section.

1. Dept. of Speculation written by Jenny Offill

The book gives glimpses and insights into a "not-so-perfect" marriage. It is rib-tickling and thought-provoking in equal parts. This Reading Comprehension Book for CAT has many anecdotes of hilarious conversations between a parent-child duo. The book concludes on a rather vague note; you fail to understand whether you should smile or let that feeling of bereavement overpower your senses. From the perspective of CAT 2022, this book can help build a sound vocabulary and figure out the tones of different passages.

2. Animal Farm by George Orwell

This Reading Comprehension Book for CAT shows us how power corrupts one and how infinitely absolute power corrupts one to infinitely high degrees! Written against the backdrop of Stalinist Russia, it questions the very roots of communism. Also, it makes you to take a look at all of his heroic deeds (yes, heavy sarcasm here). This person has probably killed more people than Hitler. From the perspective of the upcoming CAT Exam, this Reading Comprehension Book for CAT is a huge bonus as it helps you firmly understand Satire's genre/RC tone.

3. Tuesdays with Morrie by Mitch Albom

Mitch Albom has made a novella out of his experiences interacting with his Professor during the latter's last days. The language is lucid, typical of a journalist. The theme of the book is simple (OXYMORON SPOTTED!). Mitch does a sort of thesis on life with his professor. It is both beautiful and moving. This Reading Comprehension Book for CAT can be read within a day; it is worth every minute of your time for its elegance and beauty of narration.

4. The Reluctant Fundamentalist by Mohsin Hamid

This CAT Reading Comprehension Book is based on a person who practices a certain faith being wronged by a nation and by the girl he loves. It exposes the mental state of a person who has been affected by biases. From the perspective of CAT 2022, it gives an idea of the acerbic tone. The language of this Reading Comprehension Book for CAT also helps build vocabulary.

5. Heartburn by Nora Ephron

This Book for CAT Reading Comprehension is of the humor genre and helps a student understand the tones of tongue-in-cheek, sarcasm, and the difference between the two. Additionally, it is a short read, and you have the recipe for success in CAT 2022.

6. The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy by Douglas Adams

Written by a Britisher, this Reading Comprehension Book for CAT gives an idea of wry humor to the CAT aspirants. Also, it is an excellent source for vocabulary building. It also helps assess the tone as it uses minute details and specific words. A shout of warning here: this book might be difficult for beginners.

7. Who Moved my Cheese by Spencer Johnson

This is a quintessential book to be read by every working professional. You will be able to finish this Reading Comprehension Book for CAT within 5 hours. Moving on is a phrase thrown about too often in the modern world. This helps the candidates to keep their heads above the ground and have a good perspective about what to think about and what not to think.

8. Things Fall Apart by Chinua Achebe

Achebe's classic novel revolves around its central character "Okonkwo" against the backdrop of a changing cultural landscape in Nigeria. This CAT Reading Comprehension Book gives insights into a war-stricken third-world country.

9. The Awakening by Kate Chopin

This short read, written in 1899, has very good Victorian/Queen's English. The Reading Comprehension Book for CAT is excellent for vocabulary building. It throws light on issues like sexism and helps to prepare for CAT.

10. Shopgirl by Steve Martin

A touch sentimental, the book is about loneliness. This helps the CAT 2022 students come to terms with the meaning of bittersweet.