Vacationing on a motorcycle, you see things in a way that is completely different from any other. In a car you are always in a compartment, and because you are used to it you do not realize that through that car window everything you see is just more TV. You are a passive observer and it is all moving by you boringly in a frame. On a motorcycle, however, the frame is gone. You are completely in contact with it all. You are in the scene, not just watching it anymore, and the sense of presence is overwhelming. ###DONE###

10. Which of the following statements is closest to the truth?

- A. The writer does not like TV as it gives a narrow view of things.
- B. The writer likes TV but he does not like watching it from car windows.
- C. The writer does not like TV because the picture is in a frame.
- D. The writer does not like TV because the programmes are boring.

11. "In a car you are always in a compartment, and because you are used to it you do not realize that" In this sentence, 'it' refers to

- A. travelling in a car.
- B. always being in a compartment, e.g. one's room, office.
- C. seeing the scenery through the window frame.
- D. seeing so much TV at home.

12. In the last sentence, the writer talks of a 'sense of presence'. He is referring to the presence of

- A. his own self as part of the scene.
- B. the time that is now passing.
- C. the scene and the beauty.
- D. senses with which one feels.

13. The word 'overwhelming' means

- A. very strong
- B. unavoidable
- C. interesting
- D. humorous

###COMMON###14###18###Direction: In this section you have few short passages. After each passage, you will find some items based on the passage. First, read a passage and answer the items based on it. You are required to select your answers based on the contents of the passage and opinion of the author only.

An urban settlement may be linear, square, star or crescent shaped. In fact, the form of the settlement, architecture, and style of buildings and other structures are an outcome of its historical and cultural traditions. The name of Ethiopian capital Addis Ababa, as the name indicates (Addis- New, Ababa- Flower) is a 'new' city which was established in 1878. The whole city is located on a hill – valley topography. The road pattern bears the influence of the local topography. The roads radiate from the govt. headquarter Piazza, Arat and Amist Kilo roundabouts. Mercato has markets which grew with time and is supposed to be the largest market between Cairo and Johannesburg. A multi-faculty university, a medical college, a number of good schools make Addis Ababa an educational centre. It is also the terminal station for the Djibouti – Addis Ababa rail route. Bole airport is a relatively new airport. The city has witnessed rapid growth because of its multi-functional nature and being a large nodal centre located in centre of Ethiopia.
