

Bodo Literature Books for UPSC

Bodo Literature Books for UPSC Paper-1

The best UPSC Bodo literature optional books for paper-1 would be the state textbooks of Assam, and candidates can also refer to the materials from the university syllabus from Assam. To deal with the paper-1 candidates need to have a deep understanding of the Bodo language, and also follow some basic level books.

Bodo Books for UPSC Optional Paper-2

UPSC has mentioned the required Bodo Literature Books for UPSC optional paper-2 in the Bodo literature syllabus. This paper aims to check the critical ability of the candidates, and UPSC has mentioned given below texts for Bodo literature Paper-II.

Bodo Literature Texts Paper-2
Section-A	Khonthai-Methai (Edited by Madaram Brahma & Rupnath Brahma) Raja Nilambar: Dwarendra Nath Basumatary Boroni Gudi Sibsa Arw Aroz: Madaram Brahma Bibar (prose section) (Edited By Satish Chandra Basumatary) Hathorkhi-Hala (Edited by Pramod Chandra Brahma)
Section-B	Bibi Bithai (Aida Nwi) : Bihuram Boro Baisagu Arw Harimu : Laksheswar Brahma Jaolia Dewan : Mangal Singh Hozowary Hagra Guduni Mwi : Nilkamal Brahma Jujaini Or : Chittaranjan Muchahary Radab : Samar Bhahma Chaudhury Mwihoor : Dharanidhar Wary Hor Badi Khwmsi : Kamal Kumar Brahma Gwdan Boro : Manoranjan Lahary Okhrang Gongse Nangou : Brajendra Kumar Brahma