

UPSC Nepali Literature Books

Nepali Literature is one of the 48 optional subjects in the UPSC Mains exam, and it is divided into two papers- Paper-1 and Paper-2. Each paper carries 250 marks, and the optional paper is accounted for a total of 500 marks in the UPSC Mains exam. That is why candidates start their preparation with the best UPSC Nepali Literature Books for IAS Mains Optionals as early as possible. Those who have opted for the Nepali literature must analyze the UPSC Nepali literature syllabus so that they can figure out the important topics to be covered. Following are some of the highly recommended UPSC Nepali Literature Books that would definitely help candidates to strengthen their preparation.

- Himalayan Voices: An Introduction to Modern Nepali Literature
- Nepal (Footprint Handbook) by Robert Ferguson
- Gems of Nepali Literature by LB Thapa
- Nepali: A National Language and Its Literature by Michael Hutt
- Modern Literary Nepali: An Introductory Reader (SOAS Studies on South Asia)

How to Choose the UPSC Nepali Literature Books?

Your time is valuable when you are preparing for UPSC exams, and that is why you need to use it wisely. There are many UPSC Books available in the market but choosing the wrong one would hamper your growth and waste your time. So while choosing the UPSC Nepali literature books for IAS Mains optional candidates need to be very precise about it. The following tips would help you to choose the right UPSC Nepali Literature Books and give you an extra advantage.

- As we have mentioned above, the first thing you need to do is go through the UPSC Nepali Literature Syllabus to be familiar with the topics.
- Only choose the books by reputed publishers, so that you can avoid errors
- Search on the internet about some of the highly recommended books, and go through the reviews.
- If you have mentors or teachers then ask them for their recommendations.