

Most Important Questions Parajumble & Cloze Test

27. Ans. E.

As per the description of the machine, it is obvious that the blade goes down and does not rise. 'Trot' is inapt to describe its motion. Further, as the blank is preceded by 'quickly', the action can't be slow or gradual. 'Unexpected' is not contextually correct either, as the fall of the blade and the eventual consequences are expected. 'Forcefully decapitate' would mean that the person cannot escape the punishment. Therefore, option E is the required answer.

28. Ans. C.

'Obscured' is to keep from being seen; conceal. It is evident from the passage that the guillotine was used for public display and was not a hidden thing. 'Obliterate' is to destroy utterly; wipe out. Using it in the blank would imply that the supporters of the revolution (who thought guillotine to be people's avenger) destroyed it, which is contradictory in itself.

The sentence indicates that the incident took place in France, hence, a pronoun indicating place should be mentioned. Hence, options B and E can be eliminated as they have the pronoun "when" which indicates time. The phrase "as to where" is also grammatically incorrect in the given sentence, thus, A can also be eliminated. 'Celebrated' means to greatly admire something. Using it in the passage would imply that the people would mean and supported the device (which is what the passage hints at too). Therefore, option C is the required answer.

29. Ans. B.

The passage mentions that the supporters of the revolution thought of the device to be people's avenger, which implies that the other group of people was against it. Hence, 'praised' and 'renowned' can be eliminated. 'Libel' is a published false statement that is damaging to a person's reputation. It is mostly used in the context of a person. 'Underpin' is to support, justify, or form the basis for something, hence it can be eliminated as well. 'Vilified' is to speak or write about in an abusively disparaging manner. Not only does it fits the blank grammatically but also represents the contempt of the people against it. Therefore, option B is the required answer.

30. Ans. D.

The passage talks about how the government has used beheading to display its powers. One would show or display one's power. Hence, options A, B and E can be eliminated.

'Regiment' is a unit of an army typically commanded by a lieutenant colonel and divided into several companies, squadrons, or batteries. As the passage does not talk about army or its units, this option can be eliminated as well. 'Sovereignty' is supreme power or authority. As sovereignty covers all the forms of government, therefore option D is the required answer.
