

President of India List

The President of India is the head of state and the constitutional head of the Republic of India. The position of the President is largely ceremonial, and the President is considered the first citizen of the country. The President represents the unity of the nation and acts as a symbol of its sovereignty.

The President of India is elected by an electoral college, which consists of the elected members of both houses of Parliament, as well as the elected members of the Legislative Assemblies of the states. The President serves as the guardian of the Constitution and exercises powers and functions as prescribed by the Constitution of India.
